

~~~ THANK YOU ~~~

A very special thank you to Pat Hawkins, Doreen Carter, Peter Spencer -Fleet and their team of helpers and to everyone who helped in any way whatsoever with the setting up and running of the Summer Fete last Saturday. Nothing would be possible without the effort and enthusiasm of so many on the day.

The overall takings were £1791.39 which, after the deduction of expenses, left us with a grand profit of £1515.19, with a few more pounds yet to come in.

Thank you to all those who made contributions and came along and supported us. As usual, it was a very enjoyable occasion.

Thank you to all those who came along to our Sea Sunday service on 8th July and made donations. £50 was raised for the work of the Mission to Seafarers.

INTRODUCTORY SENTENCE

And wherever he went, into villages, towns or countryside, they placed the sick in the marketplaces. They begged him to let them touch even the edge of his cloak, and all who touched it were healed. (Mark 6:56)

COLLECT

Almighty Lord and everlasting God, we beseech you to direct, sanctify and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of your laws and the works of your commandments; that through your most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Mark 6:30-34, 53-56

The apostles gathered around Jesus and reported to him all they had done and taught. Then, because so many people were coming and going that they did not even have a chance to eat, he said to them, "Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest."

So they went away by themselves in a boat to a solitary place. But many who saw them leaving recognized them and ran on foot from all the towns and got there ahead of them. When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things.

When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret and anchored there. As soon as they got out of the boat, people recognized Jesus. They ran throughout that whole region and carried the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he went, into villages, towns or countryside, they placed the sick in the marketplaces. They begged him to let them touch even the edge of his cloak, and all who touched it were healed.
